

- Obtaining the age of a patient is important information for a pharmacist when involved in the area of children and the Morning After Pill.